Carmel is to honor the memory of George Washington on Saturday afternoon by giving an exhibition of America's greatest outdoor sport, baseball, at the Wilson Golf Course, near the club-house.

The fertile brain of Bob Leidig suggested the event, and a club of married men will fight it out with the single fellows. The lives of both umpires have been insured. Frank Brewster and Sam Powers have been appointed official scorers, and Louis Slevin will take snap shots of the close plays.

Everybody turn out.

When the Fat Years Return

By F. C.
Ambulance 1-86, Western Front.

When the fat years return, and, rich and free,
You half forget, as men have ever done,
The price once paid for your security.
Thinking too much of fortune lost or won,
Too much of pride and laughter, food and ease,
Or of some public favor cheaply earned,
Oh, then turn back the page and think of these
Who gave their bodies for freedom to be burned—
For these lived, too; they, too, loved ease and laughter,
Sunlight, the green earth. All that you still keep
They had, and more—vision, if you come after
And dare forget them, buried so young, so deep,
And dare forget this faith for which they stood—
Ah, but you will not, being of their blood! —The Outlook.

HELP YOURSELF

More than 150 years ago Benjamin Franklin wrote: "Keep your shop and it will keep you." The stamp of greatness is on Franklin's philosophy because it was not alone of his time; it holds for all time.

Our ways have changed a bit in the economic life of this republic which the great Franklin helped to build. No longer may every man be his own shopkeeper. Most of us help keep some other fellow's shop and a certain element among the assistant shop keepers have become restless because they have no shop themselves and call themselves I. W. W., Bolsheviks, and other names.

Nevertheless Franklin's homely saying is as true today and as easy to comply with as it was the day he uttered it. The United States government provides the way.

War Savings and Thrift Stamps conceived as a war measure and now backed by the government as a permanent policy, give every man, woman and child in America the chance to keep shop. Each person is allowed to put $1000 a year into the business—the business of American government. The business guarantees 4 per cent per annum compounded quarterly. It is the biggest business in the world. One can invest as low as 25 cents.

The wonderful thing about it is that the investor helps his country as well as himself.

Red Cross Notes

The activities of the Red Cross extend today throughout the world, but the accounts of every Red Cross agent are audited by either the War Department or in foreign countries, by public accountants approved by the War Department.

The instructions of the War Council to Red Cross representatives throughout the world are that no matter what may be the resources of the organization, every dollar expended should be spent as though it were the dollar contributed by the person least able to give it.

Opportunity to subscribe to the Red Cross Magazine has been extended and the Pacific Division has been authorized by Red Cross National Headquarters to accept 20,000 additional subscriptions. Regular $1.00 Red Cross memberships may be converted into magazine memberships by the payment of only one additional dollar. The price of subscription for those who have not previously been members is two dollars.

The Mission in the Vale

BY EVELYN SHEPARD

There's a vision, there's a vision,
That will ever with me dwell;
Of the Mission of San Carlos,
In the Valley of Carmel.

Of a dreamy, peaceful valley,
Nestled in the violet hills,
Where the meadowlarks are singing
To their mates in wondrous trills.

Where the gentle kine are grazing
On the slopes of tender green,
And the Mission of San Carlos
Breathes of peace and love serene.

Where the holy Father Serra
In the far-off days of old,
Brought a vision of the future
To the children of his fold.

Where he heard the fair larks singing,
Felt the blue of sky and sea,
And has left this glimpse of heaven
In the hearts of you and me.

Boost For It

The proposed coast highway from Carmel to San Simeon now being considered by the legislature, with Senator E. S. Rigdon and Assemblyman W. J. Martin as its champions, will be heavily traveled by the tourist, the sightseer and the camper, passing, as it will, through a natural scenic wonderland with unlimited quantities of fish and game. On account of the wild and broken nature of the country the building of this highway undoubtedly will prove some little problem for the state highway engineers.

A Tribute

The Palatka (Fla.) News, chronicling the news of the death of Rev. A. W. Darwall, noted in last week's Pine Cone, says:

"If you are a Palatkan and did not know this man, then you have missed forever one of the joyous experiences which grow out of a man's relations with his fellow men. His short life among us was a spiritual fragrance which blew in from the everlasting hills. He was the soul of gentleness and kindness and cheerful; he was thoughtful of others, charitable, and his spirit was sweet. The News will miss his weekly visits with his church announcement. We will never forget how he was wont to breeze into this office with a smile that drove dull care away and a cheerful word of inspiration."

They Had a Good Time

A "hard times" cafetaria supper—brown beans, wienies, cheese, pickles, coffee, cake, ice cream—followed by a dance, brought together a large number of Carmel young folks at the Overstreet residence last Friday evening.

Everyone attired in ragged, ill fitting garments, it surely did look like hard times. They ate until they could eat no more, then they danced. When they tired of dancing, they recuperated by playing charades, and after that dancing was resumed until midnight. The following were invited:

Mr. and Mrs. James Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Riper, Mrs. Frances Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Overstreet.

Katharine Cooke, Grace Wickham, Bonnie Hale, Marion and Charis Boke, Phyllis Overstreet, Elizabeth and Maryan Hopper.

A fine assortment of Easter Cards is now on display at the Blue Bird Tearoom and Gift Shop. adv

QUOTAS OF LOAN WILL DEPEND ON WAR STAMP SALES

Oversubscriptions of January and February Savings Campaign Allotments to Reduce Loan Task

Victory Liberty Loan quotas of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District are to be determined in some measure by the amounts loaned the government by each district in War Savings Stamps during January and February. If a district oversubscribes its War Savings Stamp quotas for the first two months of the year, its Victory Liberty Loan quota will be decreased to the extent of the oversubscription. Conversely, if a district fails to reach its January and February Stamp quotas, its Liberty Loan quota will be increased.

When Lewis B. Franklin, director of the War Loan Organization, was in San Francisco recently, he revealed that on the day the armistice was signed there was in progress in Washington a meeting to formulate plans for the continuous sale of Liberty Bonds—such a plan as governs the sale of Thrift and War Savings Stamps. Moreover, the Liberty Bond and War Stamps work was to be closely coordinated.

These plans were immediately discarded when the Germans signed the armistice and when Secretary of the Treasury Glass took office he announced that the Victory Liberty Loan would be the last. In the face of suggestions that the Victory Loan be put on a cold commercial basis, he added that the men making these suggestions were discounting the patriotism of the American people and he would depend upon the patriotism of the American people rather than place securities of the United States government upon a plane with the paper of private corporations.

The banks used to buy United States bonds bearing 2 per cent interest before the war. That's how good the credit of the United States is.

The $100 you put into a Victory Liberty Bond will be worth $125 plus interest when prices settle down. A dollar is worth what you can buy with it.

Better have the bonds of the United States in the hands of 30,000,000 ordinary citizens than concentrated in the hands of a few rich men. Think of that when Uncle Sam offers you a Victory Liberty Bond.

Don't think you have sacrificed because you may be paying for your interest-bearing Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds. These fellows back from France legless, armless or sightless don't think they have sacrificed. They simply think they did their duty.

The Victory Loan coming in April is the last Liberty Loan. Then the war is over for you. It will be still going on for 1,000,000 Americans in France.
